DESCRIBE A TYPICAL CLASS

A typical SH'BAM® class is 45 minutes long with 12 different tracks. Each track features unique choreography and is essentially its own stand-alone dance routine.

The class will kick off with your instructor taking you through a basic warmup, where you get everything from your shoulders, to your chest, to your hips and even your fingertips moving.

What follows is 35 minutes of uncomplicated but ultra-fun dance combinations set to chart-topping hits, old and new. Not only will you have plenty of opportunity to master the simple moves, the combination of high intensity and recovery tracks means you get a really great workout.

You'll be loving it so much that time will fly by, and before you know it you'll be bringing your heart rate down with some sassy stretching.
